

Board Directory

2023-2024

Bay Area
Discovery
Museum

Kelly McKinley

Chief Executive Officer
Bay Area Discovery Museum
kmckinley@badm.org / (415) 339-3912

Kelly is the CEO of the Bay Area Discovery Museum. She was most recently the Deputy Director of the Oakland Museum of California where she oversaw collections, conservation, curatorial, interpretation, exhibition design and production, and evaluation and visitor research. Prior to OMCA, she served as Executive Director of Education and Public Programming at the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto, Canada, and Curator of Education at the Museum of Contemporary San Diego. She has just completed her term on the board of the American Alliance of Museums and the editorial board of Curator: The Museum Journal. Kelly earned an Honors BA in Art History and French from Queen's University, Canada, and an MA in Museum Studies from the University of Toronto.

Monica Bonny

Chief Financial and Operating Officer
Bay Area Discovery Museum
mbonny@badm.org / (415) 339-3990

Monica Bonny has over twenty years of finance, strategy, and operations experience across multiple sectors. Prior to joining the museum, Monica served as CFO/COO at two nonprofits: most recently Canal Alliance, a nonprofit focused on breaking the generational cycle of poverty for Latino immigrants, and before that at Alder Graduate School of Education, a teacher residency program committed to preparing teachers who mirror the demographics of their students. Monica also served as an elected school board member for eight years; a management consultant for Deloitte; and an underwriter for GE Capital. She currently serves on the board of Enriching Lives through Music, a nonprofit that provides music instruction to low-income students. Monica has also served as Co-Chair of the Marin Promise Partnership, a collective impact initiative aimed at closing the achievement gap in Marin County, and as Treasurer of the Buck Institute for Education. Monica earned a BA in Economics from Northwestern University and an MBA from Wharton in Finance.

JJ Karcz

Director of Marketing and Visitor Services
Bay Area Discovery Museum
jkarcz@badm.org / (415) 339-3997

As Bay Area Discovery Museum's Director of Marketing and Visitor Experience, JJ oversees the team responsible for creating a welcoming, valuable, and consistent experience for all of the museum's audiences. He brings to this role years of experience working with children in a variety of professional capacities, a passion for marketing, and a strong belief in investing in early childhood. Prior to joining the museum in 2017, JJ served as the Marketing & Communications Director for Troon Golf – Marin Country Club. He holds a Bachelor's in History from Colorado State University, and a Master's of Business Administration from Sonoma State University.

Denise Marica

Director of Development
Bay Area Discovery Museum
dmarica@badm.org / (415) 339-3956

Denise joined the Bay Area Discovery Museum in 2021, bringing with her more than 14 years of experience working for San Francisco cultural organizations and nonprofits. Prior to joining the museum's team, Denise served as the Development Director at Founders Pledge, a start-up focused on enabling increased philanthropy among tech Entrepreneurs. Denise's professional background also includes a history of success with capital campaigns and fundraisers at area institutions such as the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and the San Francisco Symphony. In her work at the museum, Denise draws on a love for the cultural fabric of the Bay Area. She is inspired and motivated by her relationships with philanthropists and community leaders, in addition to the opportunity to broaden access to museums in our community.

Drew Sarratore
Director of Playful Learning
Bay Area Discovery Museum
dsarratore@badm.org / (415) 399-3916

Drew brings over 10 years of experience in education leadership and community engagement. Inspired by his own childhood being raised by a Reggio Emilia-inspired educator, Drew has been an advocate for playful learning throughout his professional career in schools across California. In his most recent role as the Principal at William G. Paden Elementary School in Alameda, where their motto is Learn and Play by the Bay, Drew led his team in creating a student maker space, family play nights, and innovative recess experiences that were about more play and less rules! He also spearheaded numerous community engagement programs that resulted in reduced absenteeism, higher caregiver participation and input, and the creation of a relief fund serving families in need during COVID. Drew earned a BA in Communications from Indiana University, an MAs in Multiple Subject Teaching from Loyola Marymount University, and Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from California State University of Northridge.

Lauren Dillard

Chair

lauren.dillard@liveramp.com / laurenrussi@gmail.com
(925) 549-0990

Lauren Dillard is Senior Vice President of Finance and Investor Relations at LiveRamp where she leads all aspects of the company's finance and investor relations. As part of the executive leadership team, Lauren is focused on reinforcing the company's position as the leading data enablement platform. Prior to LiveRamp, Lauren spent five years at Acxiom and two years at Addo Communications, where she helped develop and execute investor relations strategies for private and public companies in the TMT space. Before Addo, she worked in corporate finance at Silver Spring Networks and completed her CPA at Ernst & Young. Lauren holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Santa Clara University.

She is an active community leader and has served on and chaired a number of Bay Area nonprofit boards of directors, including the Bay Area Discovery Museum and Multiplying Good. She lives in San Francisco with her husband, Matt, and three daughters, Marion, Carlin and Millie.

Rameez Dossa

Vice Chair

rd@dodgeandcox.com / (415) 205-7868

Rameez is a portfolio manager and investment analyst at Dodge & Cox, and joined the firm in 2013. Rameez received his B.S. degree from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and his M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School. Prior to graduate school, he worked as a private equity and distressed credit associate at TPG Capital and as an investment banking analyst at Goldman Sachs. Rameez lives in San Francisco with his wife Samantha and their three children Aria, Sophia and Zain.

Dana Marohn Spiliotis

Treasurer

dana.m.marohn@gmail.com / (607) 227-5653

Dana Marohn Spiliotis is a technology executive, investor, advisor, and former investment banker. She has a passion for helping scale high growth businesses primarily through finance, strategy, capital markets, and M&A capacities.

Dana is a limited partner and consults for Operator Collective, a seed and early-stage enterprise B2B venture fund backed by experienced tech operators from diverse backgrounds and top-tier institutional investors.

Previously, Dana was SVP of Strategic Finance and Corporate Development at ZoomInfo (NASDAQ: ZI) from 2020 – 2023. She joined ZI after advising the company on its IPO while at Morgan Stanley. In addition, Dana was with Morgan Stanley's technology investment banking group from 2014 - 2020 and worked on M&A and capital markets transactions totaling nearly $30 billion.

Prior to Morgan Stanley, Dana worked in consulting and has operating experience at a venture-backed software company.

Dana received her BS from Cornell University, her MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management and her MPA from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. She lives in San Francisco with her husband, Charles, 5-year-old daughter, Quinn, and 2-year-old son, Luke.

Todd Fox

Secretary

tfox@visa.com / (202) 276-9580

As Vice President of Global Policy at Visa, Todd works in partnership with public authorities and international organizations to accelerate financial access and inclusion. His department is responsible for partnering with government officials around the world to advance policies that foster the growth of electronic payments. Prior to joining Visa, he managed international external relations at Rio Tinto, a global mining and metals company. Earlier in his career, Todd held several positions at the United States Department of Commerce and Inter-American Development Bank in Washington, D.C. Todd holds a B.A. in political science from LeMoyné College and an M.A. in international affairs and economics from Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. In 2001, he was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship to study the North American Free Trade Agreement at McGill University. Todd lives in San Francisco with his wife Elizabeth and their daughters Rosalind and Dorothy.

Allison Eisenhardt

Allison.eisenhardt@gmail.com / (415) 516-2157

Allison Eisenhardt holds a BA in Political Science from UC Berkeley, and a JD from the USC Gould School of Law. Allison was in-house counsel for the Screen Actors Guild in Los Angeles for eight years after law school. Upon her move back to San Francisco, Allison turned her sights to philanthropy.

She joined the California Pacific Medical Center Foundation Board in 2014, where she sits on the Executive Committee, and is Chair of the Women's and Children's Leadership Council. She recently termed off the Board of Directors for SFCASA (San Francisco Court Appointed Special Advocates) after being a part of the organization for over 10 years and is now chairing the Advisory Board to SFCASA. During her time with SFCASA, she chaired the gala, served as Board Chair from 2016-2018, and co-chaired the search committee for the new Executive Director.

She lives in San Francisco with her husband Jesse Eisenhardt and their child, Alex.

Ishanaa Rambachan

ishanaa@gmail.com / (202) 603-5549

Ishanaa Rambachan is a Partner in the San Francisco office of McKinsey & Company and leader in McKinsey's Financial Services, Organization, and Risk practices with focus on organizational design, talent, and culture. She leads McKinsey's Future of Work research across financial institutions including how to navigate the impact of COVID-19. Ishanaa also leads McKinsey's risk organization and governance service line.

Since joining McKinsey a decade ago, Ishanaa has advised executives at leading banking and consumer-finance firms. She combines her technical expertise in risk, organization and finance with extensive leadership capabilities and a deep understanding of her clients' business context to generate real impact. Also, she has led several risk-function transformations and helped numerous banks improve their operational risk, risk-identification, and stress-testing processes. She has authored Shaping and Safeguarding the Banking Workforce after COVID-19 and 10 ways to become flatter, faster, smarter in banking. She is also part of the Women in the Workplace author team.

She holds a B.A. Summa Cum Laude in Economics and Political Science from St. Olaf College and an M.Phil. in International Development from Oxford University where she was a Rhodes Scholar. Ishanaa is a mom to twin toddlers, Aadyaa and Amiyaa who are 3 and she and her family are frequent visitors to the museum.

Lauren Gross Bernstein

lauren@foundersfund.com / (415) 613-3480

Lauren Gross Bernstein is a Partner and COO at Founders Fund, working closely with the investment team and leading all non-investment activities, which include running internal operations and overseeing the firm's legal, finance and branding teams. Lauren works with the partnership on key strategic decisions and investments and also leads fundraising and management of the firm's limited partner relationships.

Prior to Founders Fund, Lauren spent four years at Clarium Capital Management LLC, a global macro hedge fund. She began her financial career at Citigroup Investment Bank, where she was an analyst in the technology group. Lauren graduated with honors in Economics from Stanford University. She lives in San Francisco with her husband and children.

Austin Bowers

ABowers@sixthstreet.com / (415) 486-5903

Austin lives in San Francisco with his wife, Nora, and son, Ford. He is a Managing Director at Sixth Street Partners and leads Sixth Street's SMEC (Sports, Media, Entertainment & Communications) investing business. Austin moved to San Francisco to join Sixth Street in 2013 and previously worked at Goldman Sachs in New York. He graduated with a BA from Dartmouth College, where he was a member of the men's soccer team.

Lindsay Brown

lindsay.hirsch@gmail.com / (415) 996-7730

Lindsay is the Studio Director at Regan Baker Design, a Bay Area based Residential Interior Design Studio, where she oversees strategy, marketing, & operations. Prior to joining the RBD team, she spent 9 years as a Senior Sales Executive at Google, working in both the London and San Francisco offices. Before relocating to the Bay Area, Lindsay spent 8 years in New York City working for a range of media, publishing, and entertainment companies in a sales and marketing capacity that include Apple, Live Nation Entertainment, imeem, Getty Images, & Conde Nast.

Lindsay holds a BA in Psychology and Art History from Dartmouth College. She currently lives in San Francisco (since 2015) with her husband Tim and their two children, Sophie and Oliver.

Toby Brown

toby.cb@gmail.com / tobybrown@google.com
(510) 541-0543

Toby is the Global Head of Banking Solutions for Google Cloud. In this role, he focuses on developing and delivering cutting edge solutions that leverage the best of Google's technology to transform financial services around the world.

Before Google, Toby held several executive roles at Wells Fargo, including most recently serving on the bank's management committee as EVP and COO of Strategy, Digital, and Innovation. Previous roles at Wells Fargo included leading Enterprise Data Strategy & Architecture as well as leadership roles in Corporate Strategy, Cyber Security, Commercial Banking, Consumer Insurance, and Technology & Operations.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, he worked in sales and marketing for the Golden State Warriors and in wealth management at Morgan Stanley. Toby holds a B.A. in psychology from UC Berkeley with a minor in business administration. Toby lives in Menlo Park with his wife An and two children, ThaiSon and Aily.

Nicole Elliott-Karvosky

ne1995@gmail.com / (917) 319-9474

Nicole is a certified school psychologist. She holds a B.A. from Wellesley College and a Ph.D. in School Psychology from Columbia University. Since 2021, Nicole has worked with Envision Education, a Bay Area charter school network, first as Clinical Psychology Team Lead and Postdoctoral Fellow at the Psychological Services Center, and more recently as an independent contractor conducting psychoeducational assessments for high school-aged students. Prior to relocating to San Francisco in 2015, Nicole was a Postdoctoral Fellow at Therapy West and Academics West in Manhattan. She completed the Predoctoral Internship in Clinical Psychology at the Child and Family Institute at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center in NYC. She also was a Clinical Researcher at New York State Psychiatric Institute / Columbia University Medical Center both during and after graduate school. Nicole currently serves on the President's Advisory Council at Teachers College, Columbia University and on the Vestry of St. Mary the Virgin Episcopal Church in San Francisco. She lives in San Francisco with her husband and two children.

Lian Eoyang

lian.eoyang@gmail.com / (415) 205-5026

Lian Eoyang is an architect, advisor, and angel investor. Her interests encompass both design and technology via her own architecture firm, in her current role at Apple, and also as a professor at California College of Arts. She holds a Master of Architecture from Harvard University and a Bachelor of Arts from Wellesley College. She is a Fellow at the Edmund Hillary Foundation. Lian lives in San Francisco with her husband and children.

Vanessa Famulener

vanessa.famulener@gmail.com / vanessa@homelight.com
(561) 212-6494

Vanessa Famulener resides in Kentfield, CA, with her husband Conor and their two children, Sydney (aged 2) and Brock (just turned 1). Originally from Florida, Vanessa holds a degree in Business Management with a concentration in Fine Arts from Wake Forest University and an MBA from Harvard Business School. Vanessa serves as the President of HomeLight Homes, a company that develops and distributes unique home financing products. Throughout her career, she has played integral roles for high-growth consumer tech companies like Stitch Fix, Shutterfly, and Houzz. Vanessa was named a Housing Wire Woman of Influence in 2020, 2021, and 2022. She has also remained involved with her alma maters, serving on alumni boards for both institutions.

Alix Rogers Flynn

alixrogers@gmail.com / (808) 224-6943

Alix Rogers Flynn is an Acting Professor of Law at UC Davis. Her research and writing focuses on the regulation of emerging biotechnologies, particularly ethical and legal issues related to the use of human biological materials. Alix received her BA from the University of Pennsylvania and her JD from Yale Law School. Alix also completed a MPhil and is waiting to defend her PhD from Cambridge University as a Gates Scholar. Alix lives in San Francisco with her husband and their two children, Leila and Claire.

Lexie Fisher George

lexiefgeorge@gmail.com / (415) 342-7686

Lexie George is a San Francisco native and received a Bachelor's Degree in Art History from Middlebury College. Lexie is passionate about education. She taught fifth-grade literacy for five years at charter schools in Brooklyn (Teach for America) and San Francisco (KIPP). She served on the San Francisco Day School board from 2016 until June 2022. She was on the advancement and DEI committees, as well as the search committee for the new Head of School starting in 2023. Lexie serves on the Gap Foundation board, working to empower women and low-income teens around the world. She and her husband Mark have 3 kids - 2 years 5 years and 2 months who keep them very busy! Lexie loves the outdoors, cooking and traveling with her family.

Charlton Gholson

charlton.gholson@gmail.com / (650) 353-1655

Charlton Gholson is Director of Strategic Partnerships at Meta, working with leading voices in technology and media, including venture capital and investing. A 12-year veteran of the company – including 9 years dedicated to Instagram – he has held a wide range of roles across business development, operations, creative strategy, communications, and sales. Prior to joining Facebook, he worked at startups in advertising technology and gaming. He also currently serves on the board of directors for the Stern Grove Music Festival, a nonprofit that offers live outdoor music concerts free to the public.

Charlton lives in San Francisco with his wife, two daughters, and golden doodle.

Chian Gong

xiaoqian.gong@gmail.com / (925) 640-8810

Chian is a managing partner at Reach Capital, a venture fund focused on early-stage education technology that empowers learners, parents and educators from early childhood through lifelong learning. She currently serves as board director for Stepful, EveryDay Labs, Guardians Collective and Winnie. She is also a mentor and advisor to several accelerators including Transcend Network. Chian is a founding member of All Raise, a new non-profit dedicated to accelerating the success of female and non-binary founders and funders to build a more prosperous, equitable future. She was previously a management consultant at Parthenon Group as well as ZS Associates where her work ranged from private equity due diligence to R&D pipeline forecasting. She also is an Education Pioneers alumnae with operational experience on the technology team at Aspire Public Schools. Chian entered the edtech ecosystem by organizing HacktivateED, an education hackathon focused on solving concrete needs for San Francisco Unified, Oakland Unified and Aspire Public Schools. She received her BS in Bioengineering from the University of California, Berkeley and a joint MBA/MPA from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

David Hamsher

davidhamsher@paulhastings.com
w: (415) 856-7023 / m: (415) 889-0653

David Hamsher seeks to create and support communities through developing and enhancing vibrant places, including the Bay Area Discovery Museum. Professionally he is a partner in the global real estate law practice of Paul Hastings, representing developers and investors in development and ownership of residential, commercial and other real estate, including leadership at many of San Francisco's largest and most innovative development projects. David works to support education, parks and community institutions through pro bono and board work, including the development of new school facilities for Cow Hollow School (in the Presidio) and Envision Academy (in West Oakland), and the development of numerous new parks in San Francisco for the San Francisco Parks Alliance. In his home life, he tries to keep the roof from flying off at his house in the Richmond district, which he shares with his wife, Kate Karas, and his active and joyous daughters, Mazzy and Zoey.

Franchesca Hashim

franchesca.hashim@gmail.com / (510) 557-7542

Franchesca Hashim is a marketing executive, start-up advisor, and investor. Franchesca has spent her career focused on driving cultural impact through storytelling and experiences at world class brands such as Airbnb, MasterClass, Everlane, and Saks Fifth Avenue. After building and scaling companies for their next stage of growth, Franchesca now runs a consulting business working with early start-ups to shape their brand strategy for long term growth and scale.

Franchesca holds a degree in Communication Studies from Loyola Marymount University. Franchesca resides in Oakland with her husband and twin girls. As a personal area of interest Franchesca leads a community focused gathering, Black Family Picnic, where she brings together Black families throughout the Bay Area for play and kinship.

Sudarshan (Sudi) Jain

sudi.jain@gmail.com / (201) 214-5541

Sudi Jain is a tax partner in Ernst & Young LLP's San Francisco office. Sudi studied accounting and finance at Bangalore University and received his BBM from the Bangalore University, India. He is a CA CPA and a member of the AICPA. He began his career in EY Bangalore office in 2002 and relocated to EY New York office in 2005. He moved to the West Coast in 2014 and was promoted to partner in 2015 and currently co-lead the real estate practice in the Bay Area for EY. Sudi serves a variety of private equity and real estate clients. In addition to the growth of his EY team, of equal importance to him is to continue to build upon existing sense of community and the ties we all share in order to have a more positive impact on our local communities and lives outside of the office.

On a personal front, Sudi and Priyanka, his wife, have 2 daughters, Ariana and Samara. Ariana turned 7 recently and is in the 2nd grade at the Hamlin School. Samara is just over 3 years old and is going to Stretch the Imagination Preschool.

Genelle Kahan

Genelle.Kahan@gmail.com / (509) 308-3630

Genelle Kahan is the Executive Vice President of New Ventures at Bain and Company. She leads operations for a portfolio of innovative global businesses and an in-house incubator for SaaS and DaaS solutions. Prior to her current role, she spent over 10 years as a consultant in Bain's Retail and Technology practices. Genelle is an active contributor to several women's initiatives at Bain, including leading Moms at Bain for the West Coast. She holds an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and a BBA from the University of Washington where she graduated magna cum laude. Genelle lives in Kentfield with her husband Ari and two girls, Aya (5) and Mara (3).

April Kupper

april.x.kupper@jpmorgan.com / (347) 886-2683

April Kupper is a Managing Director at J.P. Morgan Private Bank, charged with leading the Investment practice for the Northern California markets. In her senior role, April directs a team of professionals to deliver advice on portfolio construction, asset allocation and manager selection across both public and private markets. Her overarching mission is to provide successful families with sophisticated strategies that increase the probability of achieving their meaningful goals. Throughout a career that spans nearly two decades, April has found that tailored advice and financial education are essential to a positive outcome. Before joining J.P. Morgan in 2007, she was an Investment Associate at Lenox Advisors in New York.

April graduated with a B.S. in Business Management from SUNY Geneseo. She is a CFA® charter holder and a member of the CFA Institute and San Francisco Analyst Society. Originally from the East Coast, April is a longtime resident of San Francisco, where she lives with her husband and two young sons. She serves as a Trustee of the Bay Area Discovery Museum and was on the board of the Junior Committee for the San Francisco Symphony and Reading Partners.

Christina Millikin

christinamillikin@gmail.com / (415) 722-3611

Christina is a founder, former CEO, and business advisor based in San Francisco. She has a master's degree in Organizational Development and Leadership and over a decade of experience as a CEO and entrepreneur. As an advisor and business coach, she is passionate about helping entrepreneurs and leaders create successful businesses with positive working environments.

In addition to working with private clients, Christina also works with the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Program as a Business Advisor for their national cohort at Babson College. Prior to advising, Christina was the founder and CEO of Glow Events, an event planning agency that she sold after running for 10 years. She lives in Tiburon with her husband and two children - son Wilder (4) and daughter Merrick (3).

Laura Nichol

lauradnichol@gmail.com / (917) 453-6024

Laura is a marketing, brand strategy, and social impact leader at Google, where she has worked for nearly thirteen years. She is currently focused on expanding access to STEM and computer science education for under-resourced students. Laura has overseen Google's partnerships with nonprofit and community organizations, including the Malala Fund, Boys & Girls Club, and the American Library Association. She has also managed education initiatives with Lego, National Geographic, the United Nations, and the White House. Prior to Google, Laura held various marketing positions in New York after graduating from Dartmouth College with a degree in economics and history. Laura lives in Marin with her husband, Mark, and their children, Delaney, Peter, and new baby Charlotte. She is completing her tenure as co-president of the Ross Auxiliary. BADM has been a meaningful part of her children's lives; her family has participated in the toddler program and The Discovery School. Laura has also been an active member of Friends of BADM for the past two years.

Anna Nordberg

anna@annanordberg.com / (917) 969-5264

Anna is a freelance writer whose work has appeared in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The San Francisco Chronicle, and Slate. Prior to going freelance she worked for over ten years as a magazine editor, including three years at Conde Nast's Cookie, where she focused on parenting and maternal and pediatric health. She is the Board Chair for Children's Council, which helps families find and afford childcare in San Francisco and works to boost the city's supply of quality care. Since 2021, she has served as a Trustee for the Crescent Porter Hale Foundation, which supports education and middle school success. Anna lives in San Francisco with her husband Brant and their two children, William and Olivia Rose.

Priya Pai

priya1021@gmail.com / (630) 915-1875

Priya Pai serves as a Legal Advisor to Hims, Inc. a consumer telehealth platform, with a focus on data and consumer privacy. Prior to joining Hims, Priya was a legal analyst at Omni Bridgeway, a litigation finance investment fund, and began her legal career as a litigator in Latham & Watkins' San Francisco office.

Priya originally hails from Chicago but now lives in Tiburon with her husband, two boys and dog Boonie. Priya also serves on the Executive Committee of Children of Shelters and she is a graduate of Duke University and the University of Chicago Law School.

James Potts

James.Potts@hakluytandco.com / (917) 750-0699

Jamie is a partner at Hakluyt, a global strategic advisory firm, and runs the West Coast office and the global tech practice. He is also a founding partner of Hakluyt Capital. Prior to his current roles, he spent ten years in the UK foreign service, including postings to Syria, China and the United Nations in New York. He also worked as a tour guide in Syria and Jordan, and for Goldman Sachs in Paris. He studied languages at the University of Cambridge and cares deeply about combatting the illegal wildlife trade. Jamie lives in San Francisco with his wife Anna, who loved Bay Area Discovery Museum as a child, and his kids, Findlay and Etta, who love it today.

Kristin Schaefer

kristin.j.schaefer@gmail.com / (781) 856-6466

Kristin Schaefer is a technology exec and start-up advisor. She was previously the CFO of Postmates, a delivery and logistics tech company, and is currently a General Partner at Atomic, a venture firm that funds company formation. She holds a BA from Dartmouth College and an MBA from Haas School of Business. Kristin is originally from Boston and now lives in San Francisco with her husband, Mike, and her son Hawk (5), daughter James (3) and newest addition Ford (1 month).

Sam Sellers

sam.sellers@artisanpartners.com / (347) 439-5208

Sam lives in San Francisco with his wife, Alexis, and their two children, Grant and Margaux. He serves as Chief Operating Officer of Artisan Partners Asset Management Inc.

Ligaya Tichy

ligaya@wildchild.org / (415) 335-4215

Ligaya is passionate about early childhood education, experience design, and community service. She is the founder and Executive Director of Wild Child, an Oakland-based preschool and children's design studio. Throughout Ligaya's varied career, she has held many roles ranging from investment partner to startup operator. She holds a B.A. in Anthropology and International Relations from Tufts University and is also a trained birth doula.

We create playful learning experiences that inspire a passion for discovery in every child.

Bay Area
Discovery
Museum